

Jazz Age 1925-1936

By Alec Cross

Jazz Age

Jazz music started down in the south by African Americans. It became very popular in the 1920's.

Jazz was really close to how the 1920's was. A decade of partying and having fun every day because the war was over.

Harlem was in the district of Manhattan in New York.

Jazz Age

He grew up in New Orleans where he was able to learn the trumpet. In 1922 Louis Armstrong was invited to play his trumpet at Chicago. In Chicago he made his first recording with King Oliver's Creole Jazz Band. Louis Armstrong would die on July
