

WOMEN IN 1920'S

Alec Cross

WOMEN IN 1920'S

- In the 1920's women would come out with a new image called a flapper. A flapper was a young women who was rebellious and wanted to change moral and manners.
- The flappers changed their hairstyles, clothes and behavior.
- Most americans would disapprove of their traditional morals. This was women's new look throughout the age.

WOMEN IN 1920'S

The 19th amendment would give women the right to vote. Most women would not vote at the beginning. It took a little time for woman to start voting.

Woman were treated horrible in the 1920's. Some woman would hold jobs but buissnesses remain prejudice againt woman going for jobs.

